Seriously injured were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Worthington of Compton and Nita Charlene Corp. 13 of La Puente.

Rare Desert Fog Curtails Traffic

The heaviest fog in four decades made weather news in Palm Springs today — and even the weatherman was unhappy.

Thick fog spread a white veil over Palm Springs Airport, closing the field to air traffic. Visibility, cut to approximately 200 feet at times, forced the 10:30 a.m. Bonanza Airlines westbound Phoenix to Los Angeles flight to circle the field 15 minutes waiting for a weather break, and then fly on to Ontario without landing here. The eastbound Los Angeles to Phoenix flight circled the field at a higher altitude prior to the departure of the westbound flight, and then flew on toward Blythe.

The 10:30 a.m. flight had circled Thermal airport, reported a 1,000 feet fog ceiling, and three miles visibility, a Bonanza spokesman said.

"Residents and visitors better get a good look, because it won't happen again this century," Jimmy Cooper, chamber of commerce manager said. He explained he had lived here 27 years, had never seen a thick desert fog.

Earl O. Coffman, a native Villager, reported to The Desert Sun that a heavy fog was sighted here in 1920. Francis F. Crocker, resident and civic worker for 29 years, reported he had never seen a Palm Springs fog.

The fog spread to Palm Desert, and soaked in the Desert Airpark at Rancho Mirage. Banning airport was open to light craft this morning.

One new resident here reported that "I left San Francisco because of this — but there it happened every day."

Epidemic of Colds Hits Spa Schools

An apparent epidemic of colds in the Palm Springs Unified School District resulted in absences of 753 students and brought requests from Dr. Dwight E. Twist, superintendent, that parents check their children's condition before sending them to school.

Dr. Twist explained that several pupils had to be sent home, after school nurses reported them with severe colds and temperatures above normal. The illnesses do not appear serious, he said.

Hardest hit schools were the high school, with 230 absences, and Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School with 180 absent. The elementary schools had a total of 343 absent.

Investigate Jet Navy Trainer's Wreckage Here

INDIO — A Navy helicopter crew today investigated the wreckage of a navy jet trainer found in the Little San Bernardino Mts., north of here.

Two badly decomposed bodies were found in the crashed plane Sunday by three hikers. It was believed the wreckage had been there since last summer.

The helicopter was sent from the El Mirador Navy Base near San Diego.

Army Defies Red Protest With Convoy

BERLIN (UPI) — The U. S. Army rebuffed a Communist protest and sent a combat convoy today along the 110-mile autobahn through East German territory in another demonstration of Western access rights in Berlin.

All three elements of a 16-vehicle convoy cleared the Soviet checkpoint at Babelsberg, and the 127 men of Company C, 3rd Battle Group, 6th Infantry, rolled on to West Germany from the Berlin garrison. The Soviets and East Germans made no attempts to interfere with the convoy.

The Communists, in a formal protest delivered in Prague, said recent American troop movements to and from Berlin were by NATO units and that no agreement existed with the East German government concerning movement of Atlantic pact troops between Berlin and the West.

Today's convoy surprised many observers who had been informed that no additional American convoys were scheduled before Christmas.

Officials did not disclose whether or not another unit would travel to Berlin from West Germany in the near future, but the company that left the divided city presumably will return at the end of its announced four-day training period in West Germany.

INDIA'S AGGRESSION ON TINY COLONIES SUCCESS

Lightning Drive In Portuguese Possessions

BELGAUM, India (UPI) — Indian army, navy and air force units smashed into Goa, Damao and Diu today in an apparently successful lightning campaign to seize the three tiny Portuguese possessions.

Portugal promptly demanded a United Nations Security Council meeting to condemn the "aggression," bring about a cease-fire and order immediate withdrawal of Indian troops from the enclaves on the Indian west coast.

The council was summoned into session in New York at noon PST.

Unofficial sources claimed that Damao and Diu had fallen to Indian troops "without resistance." Indian troops were reported deep inside Goa and only half a mile from its capital city of Pangim, whose fall was imminent.

Expect Quick Victory

Indian troops, advancing under heavy armor and air cover, said they drove the Portuguese into the end of the small peninsula where Pangim is located on Goa's west coast. The fall of Pangim was expected to end all Portuguese resistance in Goa, ending more than 450 years of rule from Lisbon. An Indian Defense Ministry spokesman said Maj. Gen. K. P. Candeth has been named military governor of Goa.

Fighting appeared to have been heavy at some points, with the Portuguese reported to be resorting to a scorched earth policy in some cases. But there were few solid reports of casualties, and indications of only a small number of prisoners taken.

Casualties on both sides were reported to be lighter than originally expected. The Indians claimed they had taken at least 50 prisoners in Goa.

Claim Civilians Hit

The Pangim Airport was reported to have been badly damaged by Indian bombing and strafing attacks. The Portuguese said a civilian plane loading passengers, including women and children, was hit in the raids. The Portuguese said casualties were "heavy."

NEW HEAD TYPE SEEN IN DESERT SUN TODAY

Brighter, cleaner, more modern and legible headletter type greets you today throughout the pages of The Desert Sun. It's all part of the effort to bring you a better newspaper, an effort which in the past few months has brought you new body type, new engraving techniques and equipment and a better print job.

The new head type was made possible by the arrival Friday of a new linetype, technically an Intertype G 44, representing a total investment of $32,000. Its running mate, an Intertype G 4 is still being replaced by a strike at the factory. When it arrives the re-typing of the entire newspaper will be made possible.

Also held up by shipping delays is a new and modern banner type which, when it arrives, will make a greater change in Page one appearance.

The new types in today's Desert Sun are of the modern Gothic family, in light, bold and heavy. The most notable changes will be seen on page one and on the classified pages.

The women's pages have lost their script types, which were a holdover from the Desert Sun's weekly days and which were essentially magazine type. The women's pages will have a new Bodoni dress, when the new machine is released by the factory.

Advertisers, too, will have a much larger and more modern type from which to choose immediately, and a still greater selection with the arrival of the G4 machine.

With the completion of the new $350,000 Desert Sun building in late January and the operation of the new $100,000 press already installed at the new location, the modernization program of The Desert Sun will be largely completed.

UN Troops Overpower Tshombe's

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, The Congo (UPI) — United Nations troops, planes and armored cars appeared today to have broken the back of organized Katanga resistance in Elisabethville.

An early cease-fire seemed likely as the United States sought a truce meeting between Katanga President Moise Tshombe and Premier Cyrille Adoula of the Central Congolese government.

The heavy U.N. attack scattered the Katangese troops, although many continued waging guerrilla warfare in the streets of the Katanga capital.

As the fighting continued, U.N. jets attacked the headquarters of the Belgian-operated Union Miniere Mining Company and dropped mortar shells around Hotel Leopold II, a haven for refugees from the battle.

Food and water was running low in Elisabethville.

The main streets were piled with rubble and hungry dogs prowled through the ruins looking for food. The tree-lined avenues are dotted with derelict automobiles.

Edmund A. Gullion, U. S. ambassador to the Congo, arrived at Ndola, Northern Rhodesia, where he planned to meet with Tshombe and take him to a truce meeting with Adoula at the Congo coastal town of Kitona.

Seven Marooned In Mountains

Sheriff's deputies were searching deep into the wilderness of the Santa Rosa Mountains this morning for Dr. and Mrs. William Adolph of Palm Springs and their four sons and nephew ranging in age from 17 to five. The party became marooned in the snow in a remote section between Pinon Flats and Idyllwild on a Sunday outing.

The party was located from the air shortly after dawn this morning by Dr. Adolph's brother, Allen Adolph, a pilot and member of the forestry service in San Bernardino. Included in the marooned group is Adolph's son, Allen Jr., 14, and Dr. Adolph's four sons, William III 17, Allen 14, Eric 9, and Robert 5.

Remember, May Be No Santa Claus

There may be no Santa Claus for more than half the 200 youngsters on the list prepared by the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society, if Village residents don't remember them with something tangible in this season of giving. Mrs. Phyllis Coyne, chairman of the society's Christmas gift project, said today.

Mrs. Coyne explained that the project has received 87 gifts which may be given to youngsters here Christmas. Many of the items donated to the drive were not usable, she said.

"Some of the things we received were nice, but had such deficiencies as missing parts that couldn't be replaced for less than the value of the item," she said.

"A major need for the annual Christmas gift program is for older children. We can use utility gifts such as wallets, or athletic equipment," Mrs. Coyne explained.

Residents are urged to donate gifts or cash to the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society in the county health building south of McCallum Way. Pickup may be arranged by telephoning Mrs. Joan Nickerson in the Friendly Aid office.

The pilot Adolph, who discovered the party, reported he saw the car and the group appeared in good shape. He said he dropped them a message that help was coming and returned to San Bernardino. He had planned to return to Palm Springs but found the airport "socked in" — the first time that ever happened in the memory of most residents.

No Blankets, Food

Dr. Adolph's mother, told The Sun she became worried Sunday night when the party did not return at their scheduled time of 6 p.m., and reported their missing shortly before midnight. She said her son, daughter-in-law and five grandchildren had planned to enjoy the snow and perhaps get some skiing in but were not equipped to spend the night. "They had no blankets or food," she said.

C.V. Advisory Planners Face Sewage Master Plan

Engineers will explain the sewage master plan for Coachella Valley before members of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee at a dinner meeting tonight in Holiday Inn, Palm Springs.

Milton A. Hoffman, secretary, said representatives of the firm of Koebig & Koebig, who developed the plan, will give advance information on a public hearing scheduled in January.

Also scheduled for the session is the election of new officers. The nominating committee's recommendations for the 1962 slate are Milton A. Hoffman, LaQuinta, president; Jimmy Cooper, Palm Springs, vice president; Barry Whittlesey, Indio, secretary, and Col. James P. Westerfield, Mecca, treasurer.

Proposed for directorships are Robert F. Cox, Dr. C. S. Johnston, Mrs. Mina Welcome, Francis Crocker, Richard B. Kite and Arthur Cavanaugh.

President Stops Off In Florida

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President Kennedy, back from a brief but grueling South American trip, decided to stop off here today in an effort to arrest a "heavy cold." He had planned to return directly to Washington.

Kennedy arrived here at 4:30 a.m. PST and drove with his wife and father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, to a rented oceanfront estate. The Kennedys will occupy the place during the Christmas holidays instead of crowding in with the President's father whose home is a few blocks away.

The chief executive after an intensive two days in Caracas, Venezuela, and Bogota, Colombia, faced another heavy week, including a news conference in Washington Wednesday, and a Thursday-Friday conference in Bermuda with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Feeling the discomfort of a head cold during the overnight flight from Bogota, Kennedy decided not to go on to Washington as he had planned, but to stop off here for some therapeutic rest in the sun.

Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said he was "quite confident" the chief executive would fly back to Washington Tuesday. Salinger also said the President's condition had no relation to the busy Sunday he put in at Bogota where the altitude is over 8,000 feet.

323 Dead, 600 Injured

Calamity Follows Circus Fire

NITEROI, Brazil (UPI) — Authorities proclaimed a state of calamity here today after a flash fire believed to be the worst circus blaze in history destroyed a nylon tent in a matter of minutes and caused hundreds of casualties.

Rio De Janeiro State Gov. Celso Pecanha said at least 323 persons, most of them women and children, were trampled or burned to death and 600 injured. Many of the injured were in such serious condition that hospital authorities feared the death toll would soar.

Police suspected arsonists may have started the fire that flared Sunday as spectators, half of them children, were watching the finale of the matinee show.

Survivors said many of the children killed were trampled by adults running over them in frantic attempts to escape through the exits of the main tent of the Circo American (American circus).

The worst circus fire in North America happened July 6, 1944, when 168 persons died in the blaze that swept the Ringling Circus at Hartford, Conn.

Three Days of Mourning

Pecanha, in addition to pronouncing a state of calamity, decreed three days of official mourning in Rio De Janeiro State.

Ironically all the circus animals escaped unharmed because they were already out of the center ring when the fire flared.

Brazilian President Joao Goulart went to the scene this morning to inspect the situation before mustering federal aid.

The circus owner said he hoped to reorganize the show within two weeks to give a series of benefit performances for the families of victims.

Supreme Court Refuses Freedom Rider Injunction

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court refused today to stop the prosecution of "Freedom Riders" at Jackson, Miss., until it rules on a federal case testing travel segregation in the state.

Manager of Tamarisk Resigns

Harry J. Drewery, manager of Tamarisk Country Club for the past seven years, has resigned his position it was learned here today. Drewery's resignation was accepted "with regret" by the board of directors at its meeting Saturday afternoon. Directors, however, indicated that they had tried all avenues to keep the veteran golf club manager from tending his resignation.

In an official statement, Drewery said that in resigning he would take a long earned vacation to his birthplace, London, England, and would return here to the Palm Springs area late in January.

Dave Holub, president of the board of directors of Tamarisk, commenting on Drewery's resignation said: "We are sorry to see him go. He feels he can better himself and we as a board, wish him the very best in his new venture."

Drewery ranks second in years of service at the local golf clubs, with Larry Sitter of O'Donnell Golf Course having served for more than 11 years as manager of hat club, and totals 23 years as an employee.

Smith Honored At Coachella Christmas Party

More than 100 employees and guests joined with officers of the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association for the firm's annual Christmas party at the Shadow Mountain Club.

A highlight of the evening's program was presentation of a birthday cake to William H. Smith, president and manager, whose natal day is Dec. 20.

Smith presented silver trays to Arthur L. Cooper, Indio branch manager, and Lucille Johnson, vice president and controller, for 10 years of service.

Entertaining, in addition to Santa Claus, were Tex Kidwell, Dick Kite and Hal Kapp.

Foundation Seeks More Donations

CATHEDRAL CITY — Fund raisers for the local chapter for the Foundation for Mentally Retarded Children are urging donations at the holiday season for their cause.

Marjory Baron is fund-raising chairman for the local area and reports she is open to ideas for methods of raising money for the school here.

According to Mrs. Baron, those who have visited the class for the children which is held at the Community Church in Cathedral City, are impressed with the shining faces of the children and the progress they have made.

Rev. James Arnold of the church, and the members, have made the church available for the school. Teaching the children is Mrs. Hazel Daniels with the help of Mrs. Ruth Tarling.

In calling attention to the need, Mrs. Baron pointed out the thrill of the retarded child just to be able to go to school. "Our normal child has so many gifts he is unaware of — health, a happy home, bright mentality and the public school to train the mind," she said. "But it's the retarded child we must also remember at Christmas time, the forgotten little ones who are not as yet accepted in the public schools."

Three Vehicles In Chain Crash

Ruby Ruth Miller, 27, of Los Angeles, was cited for following too closely when her car started a three-vehicle chain crash on Highway 111 at 1 p.m. Saturday. Palm Springs police said Miller's car struck the rear of a car driven by Owen Joseph Ebare, 51, of 378 W. Baristo Road, while he was stopped for Georgia May Benner, 16, of 1225 Deepwell Road. Benner was attempting to make a left turn onto Andee Drive.

Nose Cone May Give Answers on Radiation Shielding Materials

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (UPI) — A 300-pound gold-plated nose cone from Discoverer XXXVI was to arrive here today after setting records in both time and distance during its polar orbit last week.

Waiting scientists at the Space Systems Command here will study the mechanism inside the capsule. The device, launched from Vandenberg Air Force Base last Tuesday, was part of an experiment to measure the "time history" of radiation and determine the radiation shielding properties of various materials.

Three Air Force para-frogmen parachuted into the Pacific Saturday afternoon to secure the instrument-crammed nose cone to rubber rafts and await the arrival of the Renshaw, an antisubmarine destroyer.

The capsule's return to earth marked completion of a 1,682,672-mile trip in space which lasted 98 hours and 29 minutes, a dual space record.

The Renshaw rendezvoused with the frogmen Saturday night. The

Anticipate High Rise Buildings

John Miller, chairman of the city planning commission, told three councilmen in an informal luncheon meeting that "we should anticipate downtown high rise construction."

Miller's comments came in a brief conference on city growth problems faced by the planners and the council.

The commission proposed increase in downtown height limits, with staggered construction on large parcels which would permit construction up to a 30-foot level sidewalk sightline, viewed from both sides of the structure. Commission member William Cody emphasized the commission did not want "wedding cake" tiered buildings, but would favor height increases in separate buildings with large open areas.

Mayor Frank Bogert remarked that current low rise limits "would force investors to cheaper land." High rise buildings in the midtown sector could aid open areas, and "eliminate trash" in downtown expensive land areas, he said.

Saturday Morning Boys Camp Underway in P.D.

PALM DESERT — Seven youngsters are the first participants in a Saturday Morning Day Camp for Boys here.

Gary Buckley, Jeff Bushman, Robin Barrett, Ken Mundy, Timmy Paxton, Peter Webster and Scott Webermeier are the first members of the camp which is operated from 9 a.m. to noon for boys of the second and third grade age.

The camp was conceived by Mrs. Gay Webster, who felt that there was a need for a boys club activity where youngsters could participate in a small democratic group, learn to be responsible for their own decisions and enjoy the give and take and cooperation necessary for such a group.

Mrs. Webster, who has a master's degree and has experience in social group and as a case worker, contacted interested parents to set up the project. They enlisted the help of Lou Kuehner, who is also an experienced social group worker and a parents and sons organizational meeting resulted.

The youngsters plan their own projects and activities, and have decided to include hiking, sports, camp - craft, fishing, arts and crafts, informal dramatics and simple wood work (to learn about handling tools). Special trips, party planning, and father-and-son activities are also planned.

Mrs. Webster believes that a child cannot start too early to learn the beginning functions of democratic living, and how to make choices. The groups formed must remain small for best participation, and parents are now requesting that such a group be started for girls.

Big Texas Runoff Vote In 1 Month

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (UPI) — A conservative Republican and a New Frontier Democrat, opponents in a special runoff election for the U.S. House of Representatives in about a month, both agree it will be a severe test of party strength in Texas.

The Republican, Joe Meissner, 36, said, "The line is clearly drawn. The runoff election will afford a clear test between me and my conservative platform and another candidate who stands — as he says — 'four-square behind the administration.'"

The Democrat, Dist. Judge Graham V. Purcell Jr., 42, said, "The Republican candidate is my adversary in the runoff, so it will be clear cut. I look forward to battling this out on the issues."

Purcell and Meissner were the leaders in a special 13th Congressional District election held Saturday to find a successor to Rep. Frank Ikard, who resigned to become executive vice president of the American Petroleum Institute.

Three other Democrats trailed far behind.

With only 12 precincts, mostly in remote areas still out, Purcell had 8,935 votes to 6,704 for Meissner.

Caroling Traced to St. Francis of Assisi

Through the centuries, man has lifted his voice in song to express his joy and adoration. And, Christmas, particularly, is universally celebrated with religious hymns and secular songs known as Christmas carols.

The origin of the Christmas carol is traced to St. Francis of Assisi during the XIII century—a time when very few people, other than scholars and the clergy, could read and write. Wanting to bring the Christmas story vividly before the villagers, St. Francis arranged a "creche," or manger scene using real people and live animals. When the villagers came to see it, St. Francis led them in glorious song—or caroling.

In Venezuela, at the Mass of the Aguinaldo celebrated at Christmas Dawn, the Aguinaldo chorus pours fourth the joyful and triumphant "Aguinaldos" in celebration of Christmas. In this and other Latin American countries and in Spain, little Christmas gifts for the children are called "Aguinaldos" deriving their names from these Christmas songs.

In Bahia, Brazil, it is customary for families to build elaborate creches or "presepes" on platforms on which are performed the Christmas miracle plays called "Pastorinhas" or "Shepardesses." These plays, in rhyme, are sung by a chorus of twelve Shepardsesses. People go from one home to another to hear the choruses sung, and to admire the artistry of the presepes.

In each village in Flanders, the three most "virtuous" men are selected to represent the Three Kings. Attired in royal robes they go from door to door singing about the journey of the Magi in search of the new-born King.

In Australia, carrying candles to light their way, thousands of people gather on Christmas Eve in the great parks to join in singing Christmas carols.

In America, as the famed Beacon Hill Carolers wind their way through the winding streets of Boston's Beacon Hill singing carols before the doors of the old houses on Louisburg Square, Americans lift their voices in reverent and joyous song in churches and homes throughout this vast land.

FRIENDS ARE FLATTERED by Christmas gifts that are homemade. Some of the most delectable offerings take little time to prepare, and can be prepared in honor of the season. (See directions for a fruitcake Christmas tree)

A Tasty Tree

Some of the most inexpensive, and yet most flattering, remembrances for people on your Christmas list are cakes and cookies you make yourself. Yet, some of the most delectable offerings take little time to prepare.

Yule Cooking A Ritual for Scandinavians

In the Scandinavian countries they make much of Christmas, particularly gastronomically. In the old days there was a ritual connected with Yuletide cooking—the lutfish was put to soak on Nov. 13, the ham brined on Dec. 9, the cookies baked after St. Lucia's Day, on Dec. 13. A few days before the 25th of December, the traditional Christmas bread is baked.

Julbrod

Crumble a cake of yeast into a cup of warm milk. Add 1-3 cup of sugar, ½ teaspoon of ground cardamon, and ¾ teaspoon of salt. Stir until dissolved and add 1 beaten egg, 3 tablespoons of melted butter, and 3 cups of flour. Mix well, turn out on a floured board, and knead in ¼ cup each of diced citron, slivered almonds, seedless raisins and chopped cherries, and from ¼ to ½ cup more of flour. Knead until smooth, cover, and let rise until a finger poked into the dough, will leave its impression. Punch down and repeat, then form into a round loaf and put in a buttered round 9-inch cake pan. Let rise until double in bulk, brush with slightly beaten egg, sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a 350 degree oven for about 35 minutes, or until nicely browned. Serve for Christmas breakfast.

At home, during the Christmas season, Scandinavians heat red Bordeaux with spices and serve it as a holiday beverage. Try it for your holiday party, or fly the polar route and try it in Denmark or Sweden.

Jul Glogg

Heat to the boiling point 2 bottles of Claret or Cabernet, together with 12 crushed cardamon seeds, 6 cloves, a 2-inch piece of cinnamon, and a long peeling of orange rind (all tied up in a cheesecloth bag). Put 2 iron bars or a grill over the top of the kettle (or use a cake-cooking rack if that seems easier), and on it put about 6 ounces of lump sugar. Heat a bottle of Akvavit or Cognac and pour it over the sugar; set alight, then ladle the liquid over the burning sugar until it is dissolved. This may be made ahead and bottled, then reheated for serving. Add a cup each of blanched almonds and raisins at that time, and see that a few go to each guest. Serve in wine glasses or punch cups.

Here are two easy recipes—for a memorable fruitcake — you can bake either in flat pans or in the form of a Christmas tree; and for no-bake cookies that will be a holiday season favorite. In preparing these for your friends, season each with the favorite liquor of the recipient, and you will win extra praise for the results.

Quick-as-a-Mix Fruit Cake

1½ cups brazil nuts (½ pound shelled nuts, or 1 pound unshelled nuts)
1½ cups pecans (½ pound shelled, or 1 pound unshelled)
2 packages (7¼ ounces each) pitted dates
1 cup (8 ounce jar) drained maraschino cherries
¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
¾ cup sugar
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla

Put nuts, dates and cherries in large mixing bowl. Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt over nuts and fruits. Mix with hands until nuts and mixed fruits are coated with flour mixture. Beat eggs until foamy. Add vanilla. Stir into nut-fruit mixture until well blended. Turn into two well-greased small loaf pans, or into well-greased graduated Brioche pans, to form a Tree Cake later. Spread butter evenly in pans, packing down. Bake in slow oven (300 degree F) about 1½ hours for loaves, less for small pans. To make 5 or 6 layer tree, double the recipe. After the cakes are cooled, sprinkle with liquor, picking the favorite of the person to whom the cake is going. Wrap in clear plastic to store.

To assemble tree:

Prepare frosting to hold layers together. Place an unbeaten egg white in mixing bowl, beat until just frothy. Add 1 tablespoon lemon rind and then gradually add confectioners' sugar (about 2 cups in all), until frosting is thick, but runny enough to pour. Invert the largest cake onto a platter and pour some frosting over, allowing a little to drip down the sides. Place next cake on top and follow same directions until all the layers are used.

To wrap, place cake on cardboard or plate, set on large strip of plastic wrapping, and pull up at top. Then tie securely at top with Christmas ribbon.
Bourbon or Rum Balls
2¼ cups Vanilla wafer crumbs
1 cup finely chopped pecans
½ cup Bourbon or Rum
1 cup confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons cocoa
2 tablespoons white corn syrup
Combine the vanilla wafer crumbs and pecans. Place remaining ingredients in bowl and beat thoroughly with rotary beater or electric mixer or blender. Pour over dry ingredients and mix well. Roll into balls 1-inch in diameter, then roll balls in either confectioners' sugar or finely chopped nuts.
Yield: about 40 to 48 balls.

CHAMPAGNE to SHAMPOO

by Sue

Just one week is left to look o'er the shops. For gifts for all mommies, children and pops. If for some of your gitees, you have found naught, Read through this column, to find food for thought.

Santa Clauses with a budget can afford mink for their favorite dears this Christmas if they shop at Palm Springs Furs.

Maurice Farar has created a two-toned mink boa that will go anywhere and almost any way. The boa, which can be worn as a choker, collar or even a hat, is fascinating and fastens with clips.

The woman who is tired of "keeping up with the Joneses" and wants to pass them by will appreciate Farar's homo azurene mink. It's the only one in the country and, in snow white with touches of grey, is just made for gift-giving by the man who prefers brunettes.

As exquisite as the gold and white floral Christmas tree in the George Beebe Jr. window, are the 24 gold carat jackets which complement the seasonal decor.

The three-quarter length cocktail coat fastens with hand-cut aurora borealis buttons and the cocktail jacket is embroidered with the same radiant stones.

Speaking of fur and gold, they are combined in a holiday slipper at Grone's Children's Bootery. They are also available in the young, young colors . . . pink and blue.

Dressing up the bootery window, until some little girl names them and takes them home, are Cajun French dolls that are delicately dressed in high heels, dreamed-of hats and mink stoles.

Little boys, of snail and puppy-dog-tail fame, have a fashion mind of their own this season. They want to dress like the guy that dear old Mom married . . . and they're getting their way.

Helen Fenton Originals is showing the grown-up look for little boys in ivy league and continental stylings.

One ensemble, appearing in toddler's size 2-4, is all a little boy

GERTRUDE ANDERSON, former food director for the Palm Springs Unified School District, is pictured with the "Lemon Lassies" that won her $1,000 in the recent Pillsbury Bake-Off. Added touches included in her recipe were coconut and molasses.

IT'S THE 'WISP' FOR WONDERFUL HEARING!

You must see and hear this mere wisp of a Sonotone hearing aid to believe it. Half the size of a lipstick—women cover it with a curl, men just tuck it behind the ear. The smallest Sonotone ever, it weighs only 1/4 of an ounce (aid shown without tube or earplug).

You owe it to your hearing to see the wonderful "Wisp."

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — This essay is addressed to all parents of little children. Little children in this rich United States are getting a raw deal in too many cities and towns.

The raw deal is that they are being educated under a system so impractical that it might be described at a three-legged stool from which one leg had been removed and the others loosened in their sockets.

This rickety system of education began some years ago to raise on a national level a disturbing question. It was this:

"Why can't Johnny read?" The answer seems to be that the methods by which the little Johnnies are taught to read do not, in fact, teach him. College presidents are complaining now that entering freshmen are so deficient in reading that they must be exposed to a course in remedial reading before they can proceed.

Solution Offered

If parents are unconcerned about this situation, they do not deserve to be parents. If teachers are not concerned, they should not be teachers. Any parent or teacher sufficiently interested to act may learn something about this problem and what can be done about it for as little as 25 cents.

Two bits will buy a 15-page pamphlet published by the Council for Basic Education, 725 Fifteenth St., N.W., Washington, D.C. The pamphlet is No. one of a projected series of "Occasional Papers." It will be part of a book soon to be published by the council, and written by Dr. Carl F. Hansen, superintendent of schools in the District of Columbia.

Progressive education is getting its lumps from Dr. Hansen. Dr. Hansen believes little children should get an education even if they must suffer the indignity of having to work for it. He has proceeded beyond theory to establish in practice here in Washington an elementary school in which the little children do, indeed, work. This is known as Amidon

School. It is a fireball success. The progressivists do not like it. Dr. Hansen reports in the pamphlet:

"It seems to some teachers and principals that I was determined (at Amidon) to impose a harsh and rigid program upon children, who then would be subjected to the indignity of having to work for an education. In a nearby school system, an administrator told a board of education that the Amidon plan was a sop to reactionaries. In another school system, a principal told an inquiring parent that the Amidon plan would put children in a strait jacket and warp their personalities."

None of these things came to pass. On the contrary, all is well at Amidon and the kids thrive on it. Here are some of the principles of Amidon education as stated by Dr. Hansen:

—Basic subjects are phonics, reading, literature, composition, speech, spelling, grammar and usage, handwriting, arithmetic, science, geography, history, art, music, health and physical education.

—Content should be deepened and put in earlier grade levels. For example, some principles of geometry are now incorporated in the kindergarten and first-grade studies.

—A system of phonics should be taught in a scheduled period to pupils beginning at the kindergarten level. (Phonics are the royal road to reading). Amidon kids are lucky kids. They seem to know it.

Television in Review

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI) — In two tastefully produced, glowing and affirmative hours, CBS-TV Thursday night mirrored the best and the worst of the world.
First came "A Joyful Noise," representing those whose truths are obtained from music. And then came "CBS Reports" with "Can We Disarm?" representing man's search for the answer to the terrors of his technology.
Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic took charge of nourishing the soul with a program of joyous, even swinging, Christmas music by Francis Poulenc, Olivier Messiaen, Lukas Foss, Handel, Bach and Benjamin Britten.
Howard K. Smith was the guide who nurtured our hopes in the exploration of the disarmament jungles.
Bernstein, in the music hour, explained that religious music needn't be symmetrical, sober and squared-off with all the usual organ sounds. He reminded us that the psalmists called for joyful noises unto the Lord and went on to devote the program to fulfilling that invitation.
Despite a couple of camera lapses, it was a most joyful and pleasurable hour. Helping the bright-eyed and bushy-haired conductor make his point were boys from the choir school of St. Thomas Church in New York and William Jonson's Choral Art Society. Bernstein concluded the program with what could be construed as an impassioned introduction to the "CBS Reports" program. Pointing to the boys in the choir, he said, "For their sake, let there be peace in the world."

His loneliness melts, however, when he talks with Ludwig (Ludwig Stossel) the Majestic Hotel's janitor, who is also the department store Santa Claus.

Chargers Clobbered by Boston Patriots, 41-0

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International

There's a leak in that San Diego Charger umbrella, and if coach Sid Gillman isn't worried he ought to be because his men entertain the Houston Oilers next Sunday in the American Football League championship game.

For the second time within two weeks an opponent tore the San Diego defense to shreds Sunday. This time it was the Boston Patriots who rained touchdowns all over San Diego's Balboa Stadium to hand the Western Division champion Chargers their most humiliating defeat, 41-0.

It was only San Diego's second loss of the season, but the manner in which it was inflicted indicates the Chargers, who won 11 in a row before Houston dumped them, 33-13, on Dec. 3, are ready to be had again.

The Oilers, meanwhile, wrapped up their ninth straight victory

College Top Five Teams See Action

The nation's five top college basketball teams place their records and reputations in jeopardy tonight—with four of 'em facing the extra hazard of playing on the road.

First-ranked Ohio State is at St. Louis; second-ranked Cincinnati visits Wichita, third-ranked Kansas State hosts Arizona at Manhattan, Kan., fourth-ranked Providence opposes DePaul at Chicago, and fifth-ranked Duke visits West Virginia.

There's only one apparent soft touch in the lot—Arizona—which is a four-time loser. St. Louis has a 3-2 record but is always tough. Wichita is 5-1, DePaul is 5-0 and West Virginia is 6-0.

Cincinnati will be trying to extend its winning streak to 28 consecutive games and also to beat Wichita in comparable fashion to Ohio State. The Buckeyes walloped Wichita, 85-62, Dec. 8.

The Bearcats, the defending NCAA champions, made it 27 in a row Saturday night when they routed Marshall College, 77-49, to lead the general advance of the top-rated teams. Fred Dierking led Cincinnati with 19 points and 14 rebounds.

Ohio State walloped Loyola (Ill.), 92-72. Kansas State defeated St. John's of New York, 63-50. Duke trimmed Arizona, 78-47, sixth-ranked Purdue downed Butler, 65-57, seventh-ranked Southern California beat Depauw, 75-66, eighth-ranked Arizona State U. whipped New Mexico, 82-59, ninth-ranked West Virginia topped Penn State, 79-65, and 10th-ranked Wake Forest lost to Maryland, 75-62.

Kansas Jayhawks Steam Rice in Bluebonnet Bowl

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Kansas coach Jack Mitchell said before his Jayhawks went into the Bluebonnet Bowl Saturday that if he won, he might revolutionize football practice methods.

Kansas hadn't practiced outdoors for more than a week before they went on the turf at Rice Stadium. Yet they won over the Owls, 33-7.

It was a combination of typically bad December weather in Kansas and studies that kept Kansas from getting outdoor drills.

Players had voted to stay at Lawrence, Kan., with their schoolwork rather than leave for Houston early to get in practice on the comparatively mild Gulf Coast.

"The rest they got may have helped."

"Our boys were real high for this ball game," Mitchell said. "And that no-practice-outside just scared them. They were afraid they'd get humiliated."

But Kansas turned the tables

Lakers Slip By Pistons

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—The Los Angeles Lakers, snapping out of a brief slump with a Sunday victory over Detroit, 122-116, head back to their new home today from this city where they originally came to life.

A crowd of 6,213 fans turned out to watch their former heroes who moved out to the West Coast last year. But Jerry West, who didn't join the team until it had left Minneapolis, was the star of the day with 47 points—his all-time career high.

West's record total included a 21-point spurt in the fourth quarter that carried Los Angeles from behind to win.

Los Angeles was upset by Chicago on Friday night and then dropped its second to Syracuse, 128-123, on Saturday in Rochester, N.Y.

LA Rams Drop Final Game To NFL Champions, 24-17

DANNY VILLANUEVA kicks from deep in Ram territory as the Packers Willie Davis (87) and Henry Jordan (74) attempt to block the kick. Protecting for the kicker is Ram Ollie Matson (33). The Western Division Champion Green Bay Packers squeezed by last place Los Angeles Rams with a 24-17 victory.

Bass Gallops For Two TD's

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Green Bay Packers, champions of the National Football League's Western Conference, won their final regular season game Sunday but they had troubles—mainly a jet-propelled Los Angeles Ram fullback named Dick Bass.

Bass isn't built like most of the giant NFL fullbacks but he makes up for this deficiency in speed and know-how. He scored touchdowns on runs of 55 and 90 yards as the Packers beat the Rams, 24-17.

The Packers, who play the New York Giants in the NFL championship game Dec. 31, were breezing along with a 14-3 lead in the third quarter before a crowd of 49,169 at the Coliseum when Bass almost broke up the proceedings.

Bass, a chunky 5-foot-9-inch 200-pounder, scored first when he took a pitchout and rambled around his left end, tracing an almost perfect letter "S" as he cut right and left on the 55-yard TD ramble.

Unmolested
A few minutes later at the start of the fourth quarter he grabbed a punt on the Ram 10-yard line and raced down the north boundary on the 90-yard run.

Dave Ragan Teams with Mickey Wright to Win Golf Tourney

SEBRING, Fla. (UPI) — Dave Ragan of Sun City, Fla., playing with precision over the flat Florida courses he knows so well, teamed with Mickey Wright of Dallas Sunday to post a runaway win in the $25,000 Scotch mixed foursome golf tournament.

Ragan and Miss Wright, five strokes ahead going into the final round, fattened their margin with a closing 67—five under par for the 6,723-yard Harder Hall course. That gave them a final total of 272, seven strokes better than their nearest competitors, for first prize of $1,729 each.

Sam Sneed of Boca Raton and Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., closed with a 65 for a 279 total to take second money of $1,329 each.

Miss Berg donated her check to Children's Heart Hospital, Minneapolis, Minn.
